BRITAIN AWARDS MEDAL TO CAPTAIN OF THE ROOSEVELT

This Recognition Decided On by Government for Rescue of Crew of British Freighter.

WARM WELCOME FOR LIFE-SAVING CREW

Sailors Were So Anxious to Aid Stricken Ship Buffeted
by Storm That Officers Beat Them Back

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, Feb. 1.—The British Government decided today to award a medal to Capt. George Fried of the American liner President Roosevelt for the rescue of the crew of the British steamer Antiope.

The Board of Trade is considering a suitable award to be recommended to King George for recognition of the services of the captain. The King is expected to make a grant this week which will be presented to Capt. Fried when his ship reaches Southampton on the return voyage to New York.

The representative of the Board of Trade, who interviewed the An-tiope's rescued crew and passengers on the President Roosevelt, is understood to have turned in to the Board of Trade a report praising the extraordinary humanity and courage of Capt. Fried and his crew. On the basis of this report, officials of the board probably will ask the King to award Capt. Fried the Gallantry Medal, which is the highest award given to members of the Royal Navy for conspicuous valor at sea.

It is possible that a smaller award will be made to the members of the American liner's crew who effected the rescue.

and New York World.

LONDON, Feb. 1.—The United States liner President Roosevelt reached Plymouth yesterday.
An impressive official delegation was on hand to welcome the crew and passengers, but there was one aboard
the liner who went to meet the ship who did not pause for ceremony.

As soon as the gangway was cast a woman rushed aboard the ship and collapsed in the arms of Capt. Harry Tose of the ill-fated British tramp freighter Antiope. It was Mrs. Tose, who for a week had gone virtually without sleep
while the Antiope was foundering in an Atlantic hurricane and the Roosevelt was standing by to rescue her husband and his crew.

The 4-year-old son she left at home, but she proudly showed to her husband and his rescuers a pencil drawing of the sea, rescue
as the child visualized it from her father's steppeing over the rail of the sinking Antiope to the deck of the Roosevelt.

After her impulsive welcome came the official ceremony of greeting to Capt. Fried and the officers and men of the Roosevelt.
Capt. J. King, representing the Board of Trade, Commander Woolcombe the Naval Commander in Chief of Plymouth, Admiral Sir
Richard Phillimore, and Capt.
Goldsmith represented the First Sea Lord, Admiral Lord Beatty.
The Mayor of Plymouth and the American consul also were there.
Capt. Goldsmith, greeting Capt.
Fried in behalf of Lord Beatty, said:

"I have to convey to you the warmest congratulations on your significant seamanship, which enabled possible the rescue of the crew of the Antiope, as well as on the great gallantry displayed by the officers and men connected in the rescue. The First Lord wishes to express his profound sympathy at the loss of two of the crew
the Roosevelt during the hazardous undertaking."

"Only a Little Thing."
As Capt. Fried left his sternmost for receiving messages, Mrs. Tose went up to him and said: "How can I thank you, Captain?"
"It is only one of the little things that happen at sea," answered the captain quietly.

Then as he passed out on the deck the skipper of one of the visiting tenders leaned over the rail and with appropriate action said:
"Captain, I take off my hat to you."

The men of the Antiope left the Roosevelt at Plymouth amidst loud cheering. As the tender sailing away and passengers drew away from the liner
the Antiope's officers and crew

HUNGARIAN PRINCE INDICTED IN HUGE COUNTERFEIT RING

Ludwig Windisch-Graetz Named as Principal in 30,000,000,000 Franc
Plot—10 Others Accused

MOTIVE. PATRIOTIC,
HIS FRIEND ASSERTS

Chief of Police Said to Have Given Moral Support—Half of Fortune Spent to Purchase Machinery.

By the Associated Press.
BUDAPEST, Feb. 1.—Prince Ludwig Windisch-Graetz is named as the principal in the indictment against those implicated in the 20,000,000,000-franc counterfeiting plot.

Ten employees of the Hungarian State Map Institute are named as accomplices. Others accused are Gen. Jose Hajos, former director of the map institute; M. Kurz, the present director; Dr. Nadossy, the suspended chief of police; M. Rabas, private secretary to Prince Ludwig, and Councillor Ladislav Gorce.

The indictment charges that Prince Ludwig began his operations in 1922, that he spent about half his private fortune—estimated at 20,000,000,000 crowns—in buying machinery for making paper, and other necessary apparatus, in Germany, Austria and perhaps other countries, and that he printed from 23,000 to 30,000 bogus 1000-franc notes.

These notes in September, 1925,
it is alleged, were taken to the residence of Bishop Stefan Zadravetz, an army chaplain, afterward to Prince Ludwig's palace, and finally to the offices of the National Union, a patriotic society.

Notes Carefully Examined.
The false notes were carefully examined, and 8000 of them selected to be floated in Amsterdam.
The Hague, Copenhagen, Stockholm, Warsaw and Milan.

The indictment sets forth the part played by every person alleged to have taken part in the making of the notes. It affirms that Chief of Police Nadossy gave his moral authority to the enterprise and that he was frequently in consultation with Prince Ludwig and other leading figures in the conspiracy.

He is charged with providing six forged Rumanian passports, and supplying Hungarian passports in his capacity as a public official, deceiving employees of the foreign office as to the use to which they were to be put. He also is alleged to have introduced one of the accused men to the director of a savings bank in order to obtain a loan of 400,000,000 crowns with which to redeem 160 of the false notes deposited in another bank.

Asked They Take Oath.
M. Rabas, private secretary to Prince Ludwig, is accused of asking several accomplices to take an oath before Bishop Zadravetz, Prince Ludwig and Dr. Nadossy are described as informing Gabriel Baross, manager of the Postal Savings Bank, of their object. Baross is said to have endeavored vainly to dissuade them.

They attempted also to gain the co-operation in circulating the bogus notes of the Bankers Elischer and Horvath, but were refused.
Prince Ludwig's motives, friends insist, were patriotic, as his aim was to advance the interests of his country, but the indictment says
these declarations in nowise mitigate the criminality of his act.

GERMAN SHIP THAT SAVED 6 BRITONS WELCOMED IN PORT

By the Associated Press.

QUEENSTOWN, Ireland, Feb. 1.—
A rescue ship—the North German Lloyd liner Bremen—reached today, bringing with her six battered survivors, snatched from the maw of the storm-lashed Atlantic.

As was the case with the President Roosevelt and her crew, the Bremen was given an enthusiastic welcome, but the survivors of the British freighter Laristan were in a mood far from the hilarity displayed by those rescued from the Antinoe.

Over them hung the shadow of the fate of their 24 comrades who went down with the Laristan before Capt. Wurpts of the Bremen and his men were able to complete their work of rescue.

To a welcoming delegation of Irish Government officials who went aboard the Bremen from a tender early this morning, the German Captain said:

"We regret very much that our continued attempts to rescue these poor men were not crowned with better success."

The survivors expressed admiration for the efficiency of the German crew and gratitude for the courtesy and attention shown them
aboard the Bremen.

Michael McCann, one of the six said: "The Germans are good fellows. I was treated as though I was the Kaiser himself."

At told of the narrow escapes they had while being taken off the sinking freighter and paid tribute to the courage of their rescuers.

SAY PRESIDENT WANTS DRY LAW MODIFIED

Liberal Forces Organized for Test as Congressional Campaign Approaches.

Post-Dispatch Bureau.

20-23 Wyatt Building.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—Leaders here in the movement to libealize the prohibition laws say that President Coolidge will approve any reasonable and fair measure to that end sent to him by Congress.

"There is no doubt the President will sign any liberal bill Congress passes," the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment has announced.

It is further stated that Mr.

Coolidge is desirous that members of the present Senate, who have consistently opposed dry measures,

be re-elected.

Well organized groups of opponents of nation-wide prohibition—

the Thomas Jefferson League, of which Senator Bayard of Delaware is the head; the American Federation of Labor, the Association

Against the Prohibition Amendment, the Constitutional Liberty

League, and others—are mobilizing their forces for the congressional campaign. Significant developments are being reported to members of Congress from their respective states.

Montana Referendum Sought.

Montana is in the midst of a dry and wet fight which may result in a referendum. Representative John

W. Evans (Dem.), who has represented the western half of Montana for several years, has always voted dry, with the explanation that he felt it his duty to follow the lead of the State.

Now the agitation against prohibition, which does not begin to prohibit in Butte, Anaconda and other cities, is so violent that petitions for a vote on the issue are being circulated. So Evans, who is opposed by a wet Democrat, has let it be known that if the State

votes wet he will follow suit.

The liberal organizations have warned members of Congress that from this time on they will adopt

the tactics of the Antislavery League and insist dry to a finish. State organizations are being effected.

Recently programs have been formulated for Alabama, California,

Colorado, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Kentucky, Ohio and Utah.

Alabama Battle Brewing.

In Alabama a battle is brewing.

J. Morgan Flowers, formerly State official, will conduct the antiprohi-bition forces. The purpose of the wetters there is to see that the successor of Senator Underwood is liberal.

Spencer Penrose, brother of the late Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania, is directing the wets in Colorado.

In Maryland, Marion A. Humphreys, a Republican candidate for Governor, and previously an advocate of prohibition, has indicated

he will run on a wet platform.

pulled—and he dangled in the air. The mate was across my stomach and I thought they'd tear me into pieces.

"We came up, less first, pulling the rope gave way before long, and we were hauled in. My legs were twice their regular size."

That was on Monday. The same evening Sam and his mate attended a memorial service for Wirtman and Helfman, who never came back. His head was bandaged and he was still grinning.

"When the call came for volunteers to man the third boat at 1 o'clock Thursday morning, Sam got in.

"Out of here, Sam," Officer Miller ordered. "You've been once,

and you're banded up."

"Aye, aye, sir," the boy replied.

"But Sam crouched down in the

how of the boat, a veritable stowaway, and took his part in the final rescue of Capt. Toss and the remainder of his crew.

"Have you ever been to Kentucky, sir? It's a fine State. But the sea for me! And the boy, who had taken up the duties of the dead

master-at-arms, resumed his midnight vigil. Have to keep a lookout against rats. Goodnight, sir."

Sam Fisher, ab seaman of the President Roosevelt, comes from Covington, Ky.

Capt. Fried regards Arthur Evans, the young wireless operator of the Antinoe, as the member of the crew who probably did the most to enable the President Roosevelt to save the British seamen. Soon after the Roosevelt reached the Anantinoe, the latter's radio failed, but

Evans had a pocket flashlight, and he remained on duty constantly

during four terrible nights and signaled with this feeble medium to the American ship.

MAN CONDEMNNS CASHIER FOR HIS ABANDONMENT OF WIFE

STATE EXAMINERS CHECKING BOOKS

I Hope He Comes Back Like a Man and Takes His Medicine," Mrs. Lichtenberg Says.

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW FLORENCE, Mo., Feb. 1.—The boy with frightened eyes and a grief-stricken wife and infant daughter await the return of Lee H. Lichtenberg, missing cashier of the Farmers' Bank of New Florence, whose books State bank examiners began to check today.

Lichtenberg left town Thursday morning with an investigation of his transactions impending. He said he was word of farewell to his young wife, left no information to reassure her against the time when he should be reported missing. There was only the remark to his 3-year-old son, Kenneth: "Well, I'm gone for good," and Lee Lichtenberg, the most trusted and best liked young man in the town, had driven away.

That, to the residents of New Florence, was more incriminating than Lichtenberg's loose handling of the funds of his bank for some months past. The shortage, according to men in touch with the situation, will reach a sizable figure—$25,000 to $30,000 is the most prevalent guess. But it never made up to the remark to his 3-year-old son, Kenneth: "Well, I'm gone for good," and Lee Lichtenberg, the most trusted and best liked young man in the town, had driven away.

Books Being Checked.
He might atone for it by coming back and taking his medicine, but he will not return by his abandonment of Beulah, his wife, or Kenneth, or his 6-week-old daughter, Faith. That act earned him more condemnation than is likely to come with the disclosure of the bank examiners.

Then he failed to return by his withdrawal Thursday. Mrs. Lichtenberg, who had never spent an evening alone since she and Lee were married, five years ago, became hysterical. She had not been out of the house since Faith's birth and there were fears for her health.

Yesterday she had lapsed into a stunned calm and discussed the case with neighbors and a reporter.

Wants Him to Come Back.
"I couldn't have believed it," she said dully. "He was so devoted. All of his spare time was spent at home and he seemed so to love the children and me. He will come back, I hope, and face everyone as a man. That is the least he can do now."

Unless he hurries back, however, he will find his wife and children gone from the white cottage down Main street from the bank. They are going back down to Warren County, 30 miles from here, to live with Mrs. Lichtenberg's parents and the furniture is to be sold this week.

Lichtenberg, a neat, precise young man of 27 years, was in sole charge of the bank's affairs, and the only check on its management was his monthly report to the directors. S. C. See, president of the bank, is a farmer and lives several miles out in the country. T. D. Purcell, vice president, is a storekeeper in town.

The cashier had come to the bank five years ago after some night experience in the Bank of Treasurer in Warren County, which had been preceded by several years as an school-teacher. He had been ward on the farm of his father, William Lichtenberg, at Treloar.

Some suspicion that Lee Lichtenberg was not conducting the bank properly came to officers of the New Florence Bank, more than a year ago. The banks cleared together through the Clearing House at St. Louis and it was inevitable that each should know of the misconduct of the other.

Taken to Task by Board.
In December, E. T. Messenbaugh, deputy state finance commissioner, had now has charge of the bank, made an examination of its books, and found evidence of carelessness and inefficiency, he reported, and on the strength of his statements the young cashier was taken to task by the board of directors.

Among other things, the examiner criticised the incomplete records at the bank of $30,000 worth of collateral put up with the Farmers National Bank of East Louis for a $15,000 loan to the bank. Messenbaugh criticised the East St. Louis bank for the collateral and in the check up the East St. Louis institution discovered something wrong with the papers.

Books Found Intact.
The books and a number of safe deposit boxes were found intact when the vault was opened by drilling the combination at 11 a. m. today. Many citizens who had bonds, War Savings stamps and the like in the boxes were waiting to see if their property was still there. Messenbaugh said he would begin going over the books this afternoon.

While these discoveries were being made Sheriff Grothe at St. Charles found Lichtenberg's Ford coupe abandoned at the M-K-T railroad station there, and established by investigation that the cashier had taken a street car to St. Louis, which is 73 miles from New Florence.

The Montgomery County Sheriff sent a resident of New Florence to drive the automobile back here this afternoon.

Meanwhile, President See had insisted that he did not sign the note for the $15,000 East St. Louis loan, although it bore his purported signature. Supposed makers of other notes were called in and many of them also repudiated the signatures on collateral, denouncing them as forgeries.

The bank is capitalized at $10,000. The stock, in 100 shares, is held in lots of not more than three shares by persons in all parts of the county. There are time and demand deposits of about $70,000. Included in this sum are the "nest eggs" of half a dozen farmers, who have retired to live on the modest income from their money.

There was more than a thousand dollars in children's savings accounts on the books, too. Children and old people liked Lee Lichtenberg. He was that kind of a fellow.

$1,200,000 FIRE IN BUSINESS DISTRICT OF SOUTH BEND, IND.

Nine Retail Houses Destroyed; Blaze Standard Oil Office Causes $500,000 Loss.
By the Associated Press.
SOUTH BEND, Ind., Feb. 1.—Fire in the business district here today destroyed nine retail establishments, causing a loss estimated at $1,200,000.

While the fire was burning downtown a blaze destroyed the Standard Oil Co. office building in the southeast section of the city with a loss of $300,000.

John Dueschrover, captain of a fire company, was killed when, blinded by smoke, he fell from a building. Two other firemen were injured.

The origin of the downtown fire, which was discovered at 2 a. m., is unknown. Sparks carried by a high wind are thought to have set fire to the Standard Oil building.

The first fire started in the basement of the Brandon-Durrell Department Store and swept through a quarter block bounded by Michigan street and Jefferson boulevard.

DISOBEDIENCE CAUSED WRECK
Commerce Commission Reports on Nameoki (Ill.) Collision Nov. 2.
By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—The wreck on the Alton, Granite City & St. Louis Railroad at Nameoki, Ill., on Nov. 2, where three were killed and 29 injured, apparently was caused by disobedience to train orders, it was reported today to the Interstate Commerce Commission by safety inspectors.

The train crews involved in the collision were the chief sufferers and, because of their death or serious injury, it was found impossible to obtain a complete story. Eoghung over the country at the time of the accident and made it impossible for the motormen to see their danger in time to stop before the crash.

TWO PAINTINGS GIVEN TO CITY ART MUSEUM

Canvases by J. M. W. Turner and Willem Maris Presented by W. K. Bixby.

Two noteworthy paintings have been presented to the City Art Museum by W. K. Bixby, president of its administrative board and art collector. One is of the Bay of Naples, by J. M. W. Turner, and the other depicts a Dutch landscape, with cattle, by Willem Maris.

The canvases, considered fine examples of the work of these artists, are on display in gallery N. 1 of the museum. They are worth about $25,000.

The picture of the Bay of Naples was made about 1830 by Turner, who lived from 1775 to 1851. It shows the view from the high hill overlooking the Italian city, with Mount Vesuvius smoking in the distance. This is described as a sensitive interpretation of a scene reckoned among the most beautiful in the world. The painting resembles in style the vignettes Turner made for a volume by Samuel Rogers, the English banker-poet.

Maris' picture is typical of his country scenes in Holland, with a low, marshy foreground, where the cattle stand. The sunlight is strong, but a haze pervades the spot. This painting once was in the famous collection of Alexander Young of London. Maris, who lived from 1843 to 1910, had two brothers, Mathew and Jacob, also able painters.

THREE IN WRESTLING FRAUD ALSO WANTED IN OKLAHOMA

Chandler, Ok., Prosecutor Wires East St. Louis Authorities to Hold Men for Writ.

Three men were arrested today in East St. Louis at the request of County Attorney Roscoe Cox of Chandler, Ok., when they appeared at a preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace Driscoll in connection with a $57,600 wrestling match fraud disclosed Jan. 25 last.

W. O. Woods of Wylie, Tex., and J. Fisher, champion lightweight wrestler of the world, who were under $3000 bonds on charges of conspiracy to defraud, said they had not decided whether or not to resist extradition. But Jess Ripley of East St. Louis, the third man, said he would waive extradition and go to Chandler.

As has been told, $57,600 in wrestling match bets were reported by Fisher to have been stolen from him in a holdup at the Arnold Hotel on Jan. 24. Some of the bettors on the match left town after the alleged holdup.

East St. Louis police do not know the nature of the charges, to which County Attorney Cox referred when he wired: "Hold Woods, Fisher and Jess Ripley for charge of felonious conspiracy." They have telegraphed for further details.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 1.—Full and complete exoneration of the faculty of Ohio State University of charges of teaching communistic principles in their classes, or advocating them on the campus, made by the committee of university trustees which investigated the charges. The report was filed today with Gov. A. V. Donahoe.

FOUR MEN KILLED BY FALL OF ROCK WHEN DIGGING COAL

By the Associated Press.
SCRANTON, Pa., Feb. 1.—A huge boulder overhanging a striping operation on East Mountain, two miles east of the mining village of Archbald, crushed out the lives of four men, while they were mining coal for their families.

Only one of the men was a mine worker by occupation. The other three were miners. Joseph Marion, the miner, is thought to have been assisting them when the huge mass of rock, weighing more than 50 tons, crashed down on them.

Speaking of Italy's financial problems, he said that Italy had to pay back in dollars which were worth 25 lire each the money which she borrowed when 5 lire equalled a dollar. Also, he said, Italy was charged $34 a ton for American coal, including a charge of $20 a ton for transportation, paid to the "Shipping Board monopoly." He added that the money loaned, had to be spent in the United States, but there is no requirement that the money repaid must be spent in Italy.

GEN. GARIBALDI SPEAKS HERE

Gen. Giuseppe Garibaldi, grandson and namesake of Italy's liberator, who has been in and about St. Louis with his bride for several days past, was the guest of St. Louis Italians at a dinner at Hotel Mayfair last night.

Speaking of Italy's financial problems, he said that Italy had to pay back in dollars which were worth 25 lire each the money which she borrowed when 5 lire equalled a dollar. Also, he said, Italy was charged $34 a ton for American coal, including a charge of $20 a ton for transportation, paid to the "Shipping Board monopoly." He added that the money loaned, had to be spent in the United States, but there is no requirement that the money repaid must be spent in Italy.

FUNERAL OF MISSION SINGER

Edward Foster Buried at Memorial Park Cemetery.
The funeral of Edward Foster, evangelistic singer, took place today from the undertaker's chapel of Allen W. McLaughlin, 1631 Missouri avenue, who volunteered to give free burial when he read an item in Saturday's Post-Dispatch calling attention to a search for funds to keep the singer's body from the Potter's field.

Benjamin Benbow, "Brother Ben"—of the Pentecostal Mission, preached the sermon. McLaughlin gave a lot in Memorial Park Cemetery for the interment. Mr. Foster, who was 40 years old, died a week ago last Friday during an appendicitis operation.

$1,000,000 SET OF TAPESTRIES TO BE EXHIBITED IN NEW YORK

Dealer Acquires Hangings Made for Son of Louis XIV and Mme. de Montespan.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—A set of tapestries valued at $1,000,000 is on the Olympic, due here today. In possession of Georges Haardt, New York dealer. Only the famous Unicorn set, brought here five years ago by John D. Rockefeller Jr., exceeds in value the set of tapestries in the care of Haardt.

The set was made in 1724 in the royal manufactory of Beauvais for a son of King Louis XIV and Mme. de Montespan, known as Count Louis Alexandre de Bourbon, Count of Toulouse, who was born in 1678 and legitimized in 1681.

The set is called "La Tenure Chinoise," and was made after drawings by Vernansal. Scenes from the life of a Chinese Prince are depicted, as Chinese subjects were popular in France then because of the presence of Chinese missions throughout Europe.

The border of the six tapestries shows the coat of arms of the Count of Toulouse. It is surrounded by the collar of the Order of the King, bearing the crown of a prince of the blood. An anchor with the fleur de lis insignia of the title of Admiral is along the top, together with red bars denoting illegitimacy.

The tapestries come from the Castle of Bonnelles, residence of the Duchess of Uzès. The son of the Duchess was the Duke of Chaulnes, who married the daughter of the late Theodore P. Shonts of this city. The tapestries are to be exhibited in New York.

HEARING ON PROPOSED NEW CITY ZONING BILL TONIGHT

Discussion of Ordinance at City Hall to Be First of Series if Public Interest Is Shown.

A hearing of the legislative committee of the Board of Aldermen on the pending zoning bill, will be held tonight in the board chamber at the City Hall. This is the first of what may be a series of hearings, if sufficient public interest is shown.

It is expected that recent legal opinions, including that of City Counselor Muench, on the constitutionality of the measure, will be discussed. The City Counselor held that unless the Supreme Court reverses its former view, the measure will be held unconstitutional, but he showed that such reversals of opinion have occurred in the highest courts of some other states, and that the trend of court opinion is in support of zoning legislation.

ST. LOUISAN, NEAR 97, A TRAVELING SALESMAN

H. B. Essington Says Those "Who Retire Always Break Down Mighty Fast."

H. B. Essington of 4412 Parlin avenue will be 97 years old in May, but he still travels the State of Missouri selling sewing machines to jobbers for a manufacturer in Belvidere, Ill.

"And I'll still be traveling at 100," he declared yesterday. "These fellows who retire always break down mighty fast. It's a proper amount of activity that keeps a man going."

Not only does he still take his place in business, but occasionally he gives his grandson a boxing lesson. He believes in systematic exercise, and is a member of the M. A. A. Every July he takes a fishing trip. At 75 he was an expert marksman. He is proud of his ability to swim under water.

Ill Last in 1862.

"You see so many men who look too old," he remarked. "There's something wrong. They must be digging their graves with their teeth. I had a sick day since 1862, when two surgeons in my regiment told me they could prolong my life 30 years if I would follow their set of rules."

"Since then I've avoided beef and pork in summer. They're full of poisons. I eat sparingly of meat at all times. A little breakfast bacon is all right, sliced thin and fried crisp. Leave worrying to the other fellow, for all those things combine to 'get' you."

Essington was 56 before he learned to smoke. "They hand out so many cigars at these reunions that I got to holding them in my mouth and, at length, lighting them. I used to smoke too much, but I've limited myself to three a day since I quit for three months on a wager with my grandson last July. That was when I caught that big bug," and he told of knowing that catch near Waterloo, Ill., where he goes to fish every July.

He enlisted in the Seventh Pennsylvania Cavalry in 1861, fought in the first engagement in Kentucky of the war, was wounded and returned home, helped organize the 203d Pennsylvania Volunteers as a captain, took command of the regiment in capturing Fort Fisher, and fought in one engagement after Lee had surrendered.

Shot Rabbits on Grand Avenue.
"Three of us young fellows came to St. Louis after the war looking for a place to locate," he related. "I told them St. Louis was a good place to settle in, because it was bound to grow. We used to hunt rabbits out about Grand avenue."

That year he went to work for Elias Howe, inventor of the sewing machine, in Howe's factory at Bridgeport, Conn. When he had learned that side of it, he went out on the road, selling to jobbers all over the United States. "When I got married, that took me away from home too much," he said. "I asked for the Missouri territory and got it."

His living relatives are two grandchildren and his wife, who is 68. "I was right up near 60 when I decided to settle down and get married," he said. "I had known my wife since she was a little girl, and I knew I'd never find anyone I would care so much about."

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—Two robbers last night entered the jewelry store of Lerner Bros. & Bushman on the East Side and, after holding up Harry Lerner, who was in the store with three friends, made away with diamonds, platinum, loose gold and jewelry valued at $50,000 to $60,000.

G. V. HOBART, AUTHOR, DIES OF HEART DISEASE

Wrote for May Irwin, Raymond Hitchcock and Ziegfeld—Was 60 Years Old.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
CUMBERLAND, Md., Feb. 1.—George V. Hobart, the playwright, who made Broadway laugh for three decades with his lyrics, librettos and comedies, died here yesterday in the Allegheny Hospital, where he went last April, broken in health, seeking rest among the friends who first recognized his genius and encouraged him to write. Heart attacks, caused by general breakdown, caused death. He was in his sixtieth year.

At the bedside were his two children, Donald Bayne, and V. Hobart, who was Miss Devore of Cumberland, died three years ago in Atlantic City.

Long before George V. Hobart won popularity in New York and in every city of the country which boasts a theater, he planned four brief lines of verse, which might well be his epitaph now that the day has come for summing up his accomplishments.

The verse was:
Lives of great men all remind us Life is really not worth while
If we cannot leave behind us
Some excuse for a smile
Ever since Hobart went to Broadway in 1889 under contract with the Hearst newspapers, writing his famous "Dinkelspiel" articles, he had composed "excuses for smiles" usually at the rate of about four plays a year.

His first successful plays were written for May Irwin 20 years ago. It was not long afterward that he was much in demand. He wrote many of the older Ziegfeld follies and practically all the earlier vehicles for Raymond Hitchcock.

METHODIST BISHOP IN DENMARK INDICTED

Church Official Is Accused of Converting Charity Funds to His Own Use.

By the Associated Press. COPENHAGEN, Feb. 1.—The public prosecutor has issued an indictment against the Rev. Dr. Anton Bast, Methodist Episcopal Bishop in Scandinavia, who is charged with having converted $35,000 kroner of charity money to his own use. The kroner at the present rate of exchange is worth 25 cents.

The indictment is subdivided under nine heads, the seventh of which relates to money collected in the United States. Of this money the prosecutor alleges that Dr. Bast used 10,222 kroner unlawfully.

Bishop Bast, who is a Finn, was arrested in 1924 on a charge of misappropriating charity funds. His accuser was the Rev. Mr. Ingersley, head of the Great Central Mission organization. The bishop was held without bail for some time, but finally was released pending investigation. His arrest brought many protests from prominent Methodist dignitaries. A dispatch from Copenhagen last February said that the Methodist conference, with Bishop Edgar Blake presiding, had decided to unfrock the Rev. Mr. Ingersley.

ANTI-EVOLUTIONISTS BEGIN FIGHT FOR MISSISSIPPI BILL.
Dr. T. T. Martin, evangelist, Foresters Schools Becoming Factories for Atheism.
By the Associated Press. JACKSON, Miss., Feb. 1.—A fight has been launched in Mississippi by anti-evolutionists to obtain the passage of the anti-evolution measure now before the Legislature.

Dr. T. T. Martin, evangelist of the Bible Crusaders of America, in an address before a mass meeting here yesterday said: "The question is whether we shall have factories for atheism and agnosticism or whether the public schools shall be made safe for our children. Every citizen has a right to petition the governing body of the State and we shall endeavor to get this important measure through the Legislature." He said he had declined an offer of $10,000 a year to cease fighting evolution.

Says Headaches, Dizzy Spells and Sluggishness, All Danger Signals of High Blood Pressure

If you do not know that these and other conditions, such as sleeplessness, nervousness, shortness of breath, flushed face, pains in the head and chronic tired feeling are danger signals of high blood pressure it is time you heeded their warning.

Now that it is known high blood pressure brings on Bright's Disease, Apoplexy and often sudden death, folks should not neglect these symptoms, but should check them at once.

First-class druggists everywhere are now selling a purely vegetable medicine and a famous Buffalo physician's prescription called Norma, which safely reduces high blood pressure.

Norma eliminates from the system the poisonous waste matter which may have clogged it and caused one or more organs to weaken and bring greater pressure to bear on the heart. The effect of Norma is immediate. Often one bottle will reduce high blood pressure. Many have so testified. Check high blood pressure with Norma. You can get it from Wolf-Wilson Drug Stores, Walgreen Drug Co. or any other good druggist.

Mr. Tuttle Sleeps Now—Gas is Gone

After taking only two doses of the mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc. (known as Adierika), J. S. Tuttle says that his indigestion and gas are gone and he gets a good night's sleep now.

Many people keep the outside body clean, but let their inside body stay full of cleaning with the mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as sold under the name of Adierika. This acts on both upper and lower bowel, eliminates metabolic poisons and removes old matter which never thought was in your system and which caused sour stomach, nervousness, sleeplessness, headache, etc.

Whenever you eat too much heavy food, let Adierika remove the undigested surplus and leave you feeling fine. One spoonful relieves gas and takes away that full, bloated feeling. Even if your bowels move every day, Adierika brings out much additional matter which might cause trouble. Don't waste time with pills or tablets.

The POST-DISPATCH is the only St. Louis evening newspaper giving Associated Press news service.

Dr. W. H. Bernhart writes he could not get along in his practice without Adierika. Dr. J. J. Weaver, a doctor for 50 years, says he knows no medicine better than Adierika.

Dr. L. Langlois prescribes Adierika regularly with GOOD effect.

E. Puckett writes: "After using Adierika I feel better than for 20 years. AWFUL impurities were eliminated from my system."

Adierika is a big surprise to people who have used only ordinary bowel and stomach medicines because of its REAL and quick action. Sold by leading druggists everywhere. In St. Louis by Wolf-Wilson Drug Stores, Enderle Drug Co., Johnson Bros. Drug Co., and other leading drug stores.

Add This to Foods

To fish and meats and to many vegetables, add a lemon garnish and you'll make them better foods. For garnished foods are more tempting, and tempting foods excite the appetite. That starts the digestive juices flowing. Digestion is half done when that has been accomplished. Foods properly digested yield all their nourishment and nourishment is health.

Then, too, there are vitamins in lemon juice, and organic salts and acids which are direct digestive aids.

And lemon juice, though slightly "acid," has an alkaline reaction in the blood to offset the acid reaction due to fish and meat.

Get a dozen California lemons now for garnishing. Practically seedless, clean, bright, waxy skins, easiest to slice, juicy, tart. Fresh the year round at all stores.

MAN SHOT BY NEGRO IN A HOLDUP DIES

Packinghouse Laborer in East St. Louis Failed to Put Up Hands for Robber.

Florin Crnicky, 36 years old, of 1411 North Ninth street, East St. Louis, who was shot by one of two Negro robbers Saturday evening and robbed as he lay unconscious, died at 3 p. m. yesterday at St. Mary's Hospital from a bullet wound in the back.

Crnicky and his friend, Joseph Muhl, with whom he lived, were walking along the railroad tracks near Seventh street and Exchange avenue, when the robbers confronted them and demanded them to "stick 'em up." Muhl complied, but Crnicky started to run and fell, wounded, at the foot of the embankment.

Muhl turned and fled. Unable to speak English, he had to seek out a Polish countryman at a saloon several blocks distant to report the robbery. When they returned after this delay they found Crnicky unconscious and weak from loss of blood. His pockets had been rifled of about $7. Crnicky was a laborer at an East Side packing plant. The police held three suspects, who were released after questioning.

ELOPEMENT CUTS SHORT PLANS TO BLOCK WEDDING

Miss Olive Laughlin Weds Dr. F. E. Diekmann at Clayton; Mother Had Planned Trip to Panama.

The plans of Mrs. P. A. Higgins, 5536 Pershing avenue, to go on a trip to Panama with her daughter, Miss Olive Laughlin, 21 years old, were subjected to sudden change last Saturday night when Miss Laughlin eloped to Clayton and became the wife of Dr. Frank E. Diekmann, who is 26 years old, graduated from the Washington University Dental School in 1919.

The bride was graduated from Hoerner Hall, afterwards attending the University of Wisconsin. Dr. Diekmann, who is 26 years old, graduated from the Washington University Dental School in 1919.

MAN STABBED TO DEATH ON STATION PLATFORM

PETERSBURG, Ill., Feb. 1.—John W. Tice, 21 years old, is dead, stabbed three times, once through the heart, and Alfred Bradley, 18, is a prisoner in the county jail, charged with the murder and awaiting preliminary hearing today. The coroner's inquest will be held late today.

The killing came as the climax of an old quarrel. Tice and Bradley met yesterday on the C. & P. & St. L. station platform. Witnesses disagree as to what started the argument, but in a moment the two young men were locked in conflict and Tice slowly crumpled to the platform. Encounters have been averted several times through the intervention of friends. Both are members of prominent families. Tice being related to State Representative Homer J. Tice, known as the "father of good roads" in Illinois.

MAN, 53, DIES OF TETANUS

William Lynch, 53 years old, a laborer, died at City Hospital yesterday, of tetanus resulting from frozen feet. He was taken to the hospital Jan. 22 from his home at 1511 North Leffingwell avenue.

MANAGER FOR COLLAR
FIRM SHOT BY WIFEC. B. Belknap Wounded in Right Arm—She Is Held for Observation.

Charles B. Belknap, branch manager here for Van Zandt's, Inc., collar manufacturers, was shot in the right arm this morning by his wife, at their home in the Harlan Court apartments, 5463 Delmar boulevard.

Mrs. Belknap, who was ordered detained under observation at city hospital, declined to tell why she fired the shot.

Belknap, who went to St. Luke's Hospital, said his wife had been suffering from high blood pressure for two months and was nervous. Belknap is 46 years old and his wife 41. His arm was fractured below the elbow by a bullet of a .25-caliber automatic pistol.

Hospital attaches were told by Belknap that Mrs. Belknap had locked herself in a room and fired through the door when he tried to enter, at 7 a. m., but she told a Post-Dispatch reporter he was in plain view when she shot. She showed no signs of remorse, but calmly chewed gum as she sat up in bed to tell about it. City detectives who went to the apartment reported Mrs. Belknap had tried to jump out a window when they arrived.

STANDARD STAMPING CO. WILL RESIST SUIT FOR ACCOUNTINGAttorney to Defend Firm Against Action Started by J. L. Minnis.

Theodore Rassieur, as attorney for the Standard Stamping Co., 2000 North Broadway, said today that the company would resist the suit filed Saturday by James L. Minnis, former general counsel of the Wabash railroad, and owner of 42 per cent of the company's stock, for an accounting. Minnis charged in his suit that George Wiegand, president of the company, and two of his sons who are officials and directors, unlawfully fixed the compensation of themselves and another son in the company's employ, and that these salaries, amounting to $175,950 in five years, should be repaid to the company. Payment of excessive legal fees is also alleged.

Mr. Minnis appears to think the officers of the company should work for nothing, Rassieur said. "They have devoted all their time to its interests, and have succeeded well enough to pay Mr. Minnis a 7 per cent dividend ever since he has been a stockholder. Considering that the company has assets of about $750,000, and has been doing an annual business of about the same amount, $15,000 is not an excessive salary for the president, nor are the other officers overpaid. As to the legal fees complained of, the petition does not appear to show the fact that several thousand dollars were recovered by the company or a tax claim, and that a claim of the Government for about $135,000 was knocked out."

$8000 DOWNTOWN FIRE

Fire of undetermined origin in the three-story Bullock Building, 218-222 North Second street, last night caused about $3000 damage to the building and $5000 damage to the stock and fixtures of five firms housed there.

The blaze was confined to the second floor quarters of the Superior Book and Specialty Co. but water and heavy smoke also caused considerable damage in the Midwestern Lithographing Co., on the third floor, and the Western Union office, the H. Kohnstamm Co., and the restaurant of John Brawshaw, on the first floor.

HER COUGH KEPT GETTING WORSE

So weak she couldn't walk. Tried Milks Emulsion. Well in 3 months.

"Something over a year ago I had the flu, which left me with a very bad cough, which kept getting worse all the time. If I attempted to lie down at night, I would cough all night and choke up so I would have to sit up in bed. This continued until I got so weak I could not walk across the floor, and every night I thought would be my last. I became so thin that my hands would meet around my legs. My doctor said that my lungs were affected, and I was in a desperate condition.

"Finally I read about Milks Emulsion and started to use it. I have now taken it about three months and I am entirely recovered. My cough is gone and I have taken on flesh and strength, and I thank God that I found Milks Emulsion."—Mrs. K. Bell, 1649 Bergen St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Milks Emulsion restores healthy, natural bowel doing away with all needs of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food, thus building flesh and strength, which are Nature's only aids in conquering germs and repairing the effects of wasting diseases.

This is the only solid emulsion made and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. Wonderful for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion. If not satisfied with results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. Sold by druggists everywhere.

FRIEDRICH SCHIRMER
IS PAID LAST TRIBUTE

Host of St. Louis Friends of Dead Composer Attend Funeral Service.

A simple funeral, witnessed by several hundred persons yesterday, comprised the last rites for Friedrich Schirmer, German composer and musical director of "The Miracle," who died here Thursday from the effects of scarlet fever.

Services were at an undertaker's establishment at 1901 South Grand boulevard at 2 p. m. with burial in new St. Marcus Cemetery, far from the composer's home at Koenigsberg, Germany.

The funeral parlor was crowded to capacity and many who wished to witness the services were unable to gain entrance. The composer's widow, Mme. Elisabeth Schirmer, who alternates with Lady Diana Manners as the Madonna of "The Miracle," was accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Doellefeld, St. Louis friends, and Fritz Feld, the Piper of "The Miracle," who came from Chicago for the funeral.

In the crowd were seen many members of the St. Louis Miracle Committee, leaders in local German activities, and local extras of the Miracle choir who sang under Mr. Schirmer's leadership during the pantomime's engagement here. Dr. Georg Ahrens, German consul in St. Louis, laid a wreath on the casket of his countryman.

Friends had hoped that some of Mr. Schirmer's work might be played at the funeral but no scores were available here. He is the composer of numerous works and was engaged by Max Reinhardt to complete the unfinished score of "The Miracle" at the death of Engelbert Humperdinck. He composed most of the music for the second act, including the banquet scene, which he regarded as his masterpiece.

At the grave, the Masonic ritual was performed by members of Edwin Lodge, St. Louis. A short funeral oration was delivered by Feld, who worked with Mr. Schirmer many years in European productions of "The Miracle" and came with him to America two years ago.

Mme. Schirmer plans to go to Chicago and continue her work in "The Miracle," which opens an indefinite engagement there Friday evening. Mr. Schirmer became ill the Saturday before his death, but succeeded in directing the final performance here of "The Miracle" by the use of stimulants. At the conclusion of the performance, he was removed to the Majestic Hotel, thence to the Isolation Hospital where he died.

CRIME OF MATURITY
CRIMINAL FOR ERRORS OF YOUTH
St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 1.—
The county grand jury today returned a verdict of guilty against a young man for drinking to testificate by calling students to testify in a sermon yesterday by Dr. Burris A. Jenkins, pastor of the Linwood Boulevard Christian Church.

"We have grand juries," he said, "calling young boys and girls and magisterial graybeards trying to crush the life of the young into self-made molds—all futile." Intolerance and misunderstanding between youth and maturity were blamed by Dr. Jenkins for any waywardness which may have developed in the younger generations of today.

Discloses.

A Coroner's jury today returned a verdict holding Herman Schaefer, 41 years old, of 3520 South Compton avenue, for a criminal carelessness, growing out of the death of Mrs. Anna Schaefer, a widow, 77 years old, who was struck by an automobile driven by Schaefer.

Mrs. Schaefer died at 12:35 a. m.
yesterday at Lutheran Hospital of multiple fractures of the ribs, internal injuries and shock. She was struck as she was endeavoring to cross Miami street at Texas street, at 7:15 p. m., Saturday.
While on the way to the home of a married daughter.

Harry and Edward Streitz, father and son, respectively, of 3607 Jefferson avenue, testified they halted their car at the corner, when they saw the woman lying in the street.
They observed the driver of the car, which had halted, nearby, but had no conversation with him, they said. They picked up the injured woman and took her to the hospital.

Police testified to arresting Schaefer a few minutes later at the scene of the accident. They testified further that when they took Schaefer to the hospital for identification he became disturbing and was removed to city hospital where physicians said he had been drinking. Schaefer was represented by counsel and did not testify.
He furnished bond.

Mrs. Schaefer is survived by three sons and daughters. Her funeral will be Wednesday from an undertaker's chapel at Jefferson avenue and Utah street.

Strikes Iron Post—Other Accidents.
Three persons were injured, one seriously, when an automobile in which they were riding crashed into an iron post on Delmar boulevard,

today. Those injured were: Mrs.
Elsa Plummer, 34, of 4560 Lexington avenue, fractured left leg and lacerations of the head and face;

to the pavement, suffering brain concussion. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Muehlendyck, were the other passengers in the machine.

A collision of two automobiles in front of 6649 Fyler avenue at 2:30 p. m. resulted in injuries to two children who were occupants of one of the machines. Donald Main, 4, suffered lacerations of the nose and head, and his sister, Dorothy,

Accident Verdict in Case of Girl, 5, Killed by Auto.

An accident verdict was returned today by a Coroner's jury at Kirkwood in the death of Jacqueline Kelleher, 5 years old, who was killed by a service car on St.
Charles Rock road at St. Vincent lane, Saturday afternoon.

The driver, Baker Charlton of Overland, was held under bond
after the inquest pending the outcome of injuries to the girl's uncle, Wilburn Kelleherhaus, 11, who was critically injured at the time.
Testimony was that the two children with the girl's mother, Mrs. Loretta Kelleher of 5738 Jan-net avenue, Fairview City, and brother, William, 4, were running across the road hand-in-hand when the group was struck. Walter Heibel of Vinita Park, who was driving west, said the group ran directly in front of the service car.
Mrs. Kelleher said she glanced west but did not see the machine.

Left arm sprained and ligaments torn

FELL FROM TOP OF BOX CAR

Sustains painful injury but gets quick relief

Men who handle big hazardous jobs demand quick, effective help for sprains, strains, lame backs and bruises. A freight brakeman on the Chicago and Northwestern Railway fell off the top of a box car on his left arm, spraining it and tearing the ligaments loose.

"I suffered great pain," he writes. "Then I got a bottle of Sloan's Liniment and it relieved the pain right away. I have now no pain to speak of at all. The swelling has nearly all gone down." (Name and address given on request.)

What is the magic of this amazingly effective remedy? Sloan's sends an increased supply of healing blood right to the spot that hurts. That's what conquers the pain. No need to rub. Sloan's does the whole job. Just pat it on. Quickly and surely, it kills pain, reduces swelling and inflammation, drives out stiffness from lame muscles. Get a bottle. All druggists—35 cents.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action: it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Company, Atlanta, Ga.

DEMOCRATS IN CONGRESS CONFER
ON CAMPAIGN

Leaders of Both Houses
Meet at Home of Walsh
—Aim to Fix Party Policy.

Post-Dispatch Bureau.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—Democratic leaders of the House and Senate met last night at the home of Senator Walsh of Montana to arrange a party program. The only outside member of the company was Franklin D. Roosevelt, who stopped over on his way to Florida to participate. He was vice-presidential nominee in 1920.

The meeting dealt with this year's congressional elections out of which the Democrats hope to get a majority in the Senate and a large increase in the party membership of the House.

Among those present were Robinson of Arkansas, Democratic leader in the Senate; Senator Gerry, chairman of the Senatorial Campaign Committee; Oldfield of Arkansas, the House leader; Cordell Hull, ex-chairman of the National Committee, and Fintz J. Jarrett of Tennessee. There were other conferees earlier in the day in which Senators Copeland of New York, Caraway of Arkansas, Wheeler of Montana and others took part.

Tariff a Prime Issue.
Generally speaking the idea appears to be to ignore all the controversial questions; to regard the tax bill as water that has gone over the dam, and to safeguard against any future interchamber and interparty divisions such as were illustrated in the tax and the world Court fights.

The tariff and the farm issues are the conspicuous things they are trying to solidify the minority on, but the particular effort seems to be to have a series of conferences between House and Senate leaders so that a constructive program may be formulated.

A prerequisite is to agree that the Smith-McAdoo vendetta shall be buried at least until the congressional elections are out of the way and, incidentally, to compose such minor feuds as might interfere with the expected Democratic victory in November.

Meanwhile, the booms of other presidential candidates are either to be discouraged or kept within bounds. In this connection it is interesting to know that Gov. Ritchie of Maryland will take himself out of the senatorial race in a speech next Wednesday, when he is expected to declare himself a candidate for a third term as Governor, which, considering that Maryland had in the pre-Ritchie days a record against re-electing a Governor even for a second term, is rather remarkable. Being Governor does not interfere with the progress of a presidential boom, as another Governor, Donahay of Ohio, is demonstrating.

Roosevelt's Statement.
After the meeting last night Roosevelt said he was "particularly pleased with the growing conviction that 'close co-operation between the Democrats in the two Houses is needed and that clear understandings as to policies should be reached by frequent conferences in the future.'"

"The willingness and unselfishness shown by the leaders in my conversations with them," he continued, "make me believe these gentlemen, who, in the absence of an active national committee, are the exponents of Democratic party policy, will by frequent consultations achieve unity of action on important issues."

"It seems almost inevitable that there will follow, a meeting of the national committee in the spring for the definite purpose of planning an active campaign of education throughout the country on party policies and the reasons therefor. This is the first step in the Congressional campaigns. And, of course, steps will be taken to place the national committee on a firm business basis."

There has not been a meeting of the Democratic National Committee for more than a year and a half. Following the election of 1924, organization affairs sank into a state of well-nigh complete suspension. Headquarters were reduced to a tiny office, the personnel reduced to a corporal's guard, the publicity machine dissembled. Chairman Shaver's efforts have been devoted to nursing the deficit incurred in 1924. It is understood he has met with only indifferent success.

Roosevelt, who managed the Smith presidential campaign in 1924 is understood to be not anxious to undertake the chairmanship at this time, but can be "drafted" for the job providing all factions acquiesce in his selection. Roosevelt is said to be insistent that if he takes the chairmanship, that presidential politics be adjourned for a year, and the time utilized in the promotion of issues and in strengthening the organization. The principal business would be publicity. It is against this lack of Democratic national publicity that many Democrats in Congress continually complain.

The real cause of bad breath

"You cannot 'cover up' unpleasant breath for any length of time. The only way to rid yourself permanently of it is by removing the cause."

"Sometimes poor teeth are responsible. But the commonest cause of a coated tongue and offensive breath is constipation. You may not realize that your intestines are slow in eliminating waste matter, or that your breath is objectionable. But others will notice it."

"Get rid of constipation, and your breath will become fresh and sweet. Even more important, you will notice an immediate improvement in your health and spirits."

Nujol relieves constipation in Nature's own way

Constipation is dangerous for anybody. Nujol is safe for everybody. It does not affect the stomach and is not absorbed by the body. Medical authorities approve Nujol because it is so safe, gentle and natural in its action.

Nujol simply makes up for a deficiency—temporary or chronic—in the supply of natural lubricant in the intestines. It softens the waste matter and thus permits thorough and regular elimination without overtaxing the intestinal muscles.

Nujol can be taken for any length of time without ill effects. To insure internal cleanliness, it should be taken regularly in accordance with the directions on each bottle. Unlike laxatives, it does not form a habit and can be discontinued at any time.

Ask your druggist for Nujol today. Remove the cause of bad breath and begin to enjoy the perfect health that is possible only when elimination is normal and regular.

WOMEN SMOKE
 Put on Sale at the Faculty Clubhouse.
 Berkeley, Cal., Feb. 1.—The women of the faculty of the University of California have decided to permit smoking and to offer cigarettes for sale.

 Irresistible demand is the explanation of the move, Miss Marian Ransome, manager of the clubhouse said.
 "It was the only thing we could do," she declared. "Members of the club are mature women and certainly know whether they want to smoke. No students live at the faculty club. Those who eat occasional lunches in the clubhouse come only as guests of members."

100 PERSONS ROBBED IN CHICAGO ROADHOUSE

30 Gangsters in Crowd—Five Holdups Said by Victims to By Gangsters of St. Louis.

By the Associated Press.
 CHICAGO, Feb. 1.—Gangsters robbed gangsters here yesterday. Five robbers, thought by the victims to be St. Louis gangsters, burst into a Cicero roadhouse filled with some of the most feared gunmen of Chicago, lined up nearly 100 men and women and robbed them of thousands of dollars.
 The five men were shooting as they entered. Some had shotguns, others had two pistols each. They pumped shots into the floor at the feet of their astonished victims, who included some 80 Chicago gangsters' packed shoulder to shoulder at the bar.
 Cursing and shouting, the robbers forced the crowd to line up. "Throw your hardware on the floor," called a tall, rangy leader, and there was a clattering of pistols on the bar room floor. In a rear room where an electric piano was playing, one robber cowed some 30 men and women by firing pistol shots into the ceiling.
 First the robbers took $800 from the cash register, then they herded the entire assemblage into the rear room, where a systematic search of men, women and children was started.
 "You wouldn't rob women, would you?" one man inquired timidly. "Rob women?" shouted the leader. "Say, we rob children," and he took $14 from the purse of a 7-year-old girl. After ruing the roadhouse for half an hour, they fired more shots, commandeered a passing taxicab and, with pistols at the driver's head, forced him to take them away.
 Cicero is a suburb of Chicago.

Laughing that Tax Bill off

Taft Thanks Layman FOR SERVICES TO LAW

Comments C. F. Ruggles for Founding Society to Speed Up the Courts.

By the Associated Press. CHICAGO, Feb. 1.—A Chief Justice of the United States has written thanking a layman, unlettered in the law and unknown to many lawyers, for his service to the courts. The letter, made public today, was from William Howard Taft to Charles F. Ruggles, Marquette, Mich., timber and salt king, with large interests on the Pacific Coast. The Chief Justice congratulated Ruggles on having made possible the application of business principles to courts.

Ruggles also was praised by Chief Justice Harlan Olson, of the Chicago Municipal Court, who said "no individual has contributed more to a court reform in the last 50 years."

Judge Olson had received a letter from Elihu Root similar to that from Chief Justice Taft, which he forwarded to Ruggles. Appended was a declaration by officers and directors of the American Judicature Society, of which Judge Olson is chairman, which disclosed additionally that Ruggles founded the society and has financed it since its inception in 1912.

Aim to Eliminate Delays. Ruggles' chief purpose in sponsoring the society was to eliminate the delays of the law.

"In maintaining the equality between the rich and the poor in the court," said the Taft letter in part, "the greatest difficulty is the delay. A rich man can stand the delay and profits by it, but the poor man always suffers."

"A judicial force of Judges ought to be under the executive direction of somebody, so that the number of Judges needed to meet the arrears of business at a particular place should be under the control of one who knows what the need is. They have worked out this plan in the city of Chicago, where Chief Justice Olson, as Chief Justice of the Municipal Court, assigns the Judges of that court to the work that is most pressing. In other words, we ought to apply business principles to the use of our judicial force."

No Service More Important. "It is along these lines as I understand that the American Judicature Society is working, and I write to congratulate you on your having made this possible. You could do no more important work for the body social and political than this. As one in the community I write to thank you."

Besides doing directly many admirable things, wrote Root, the Judicature Society has served as a model for a vast amount of reorganization. In 1912, Ruggles employed a Manhattan editor, Herbert Harley, to investigate the courts of the country. Through Harley he discovered in Judge Olson a Judge who kept books on his court. Inspired by the Chicago system of records, audits, organization and procedure, he organized the American Judicature Society and asked Judge Olson to head it. Harley remained in Chicago as secretary of the society.

Julius Rosenwald of Chicago, has agreed to finance the Judicature Society when Ruggles' appropriation shall have been exhausted.

WOMAN SAVED FROM BLAZING HOME RETURNS AND IS BURNED

When she ran back to save valuables from her burning home yesterday after she had once been taken to the streets, Mrs. Emily Gastreich, 51 years old, of 3300 A. Iowa avenue, was overcome by smoke and badly burned. She was found unconscious in the second-floor hallway by firemen, who again carried her outside. Today she is in a serious condition at City Hospital, with severe burns on the head and body.

The fire started at 8 a. m. when Mrs. Gastreich's husband, Anthony, thinking gasoline was kerosene, poured it on live coals in the kitchen stove. An explosion followed.

Gastreich ran to the third floor, where his wife and son, Russell, 17 years old, were asleep. He led them to the street while Henry Kloepper, owner of the property, who lives on the first floor, turned in a fire alarm. Gastreich and his son were treated for burns at City Hospital and sent home. Damage to the building was estimated at $2000.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative. No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—ache, headache, dizziness—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 15c and 30c.

A raw throat invites infection

THERE is always danger that a sore throat may have grave consequences. To get rid of it—to avoid the serious troubles to which it may give rise—give it antiseptic treatment at once and make that treatment continuous.

Gargles, sprays, swabs fail because ordinarily you cannot use them throughout the day.

Doctors endorse Formamint because it is the only throat antiseptic of proved germicidal power with which you can keep up your fight against germs all day—wherever you happen to be.

To treat sore throat, take one of the pleasant-tasting tablets every hour or so. To avoid infection, take one about every two hours whenever you are exposed to disease, dust or chill.

BEAUMONT HIGH TO OPEN WEDNESDAY

New School at Vandeventer and Natural Bridge Avenues to Have 2300 Pupils.

The newly completed William Beaumont High School, for which building and site cost $1,750,000, newest addition to St. Louis' group of public school buildings, will formally open with the instruction of classes Wednesday.

Ultra-modern in detail, the new structure is at Natural Bridge, Prairie and Vandeventer avenues, on what formerly was the Cardinal baseball park. It is expected to house between 2300 and 2400 students, made up of all first-year pupils from the old Yeatman and Central High School districts, and all the second, third and fourth year students of Yeatman. As is known, the three upper classes of Central will be moved to Yeatman, pending reconstruction of Central's building. With a frontage of 374 feet and an extreme depth of 327 feet, the new building is of three stories, with a tower four stories high in the middle of the front, the main floor being 12 feet above the grade of Natural Bridge avenue. It has three entrances on the main floor and six on the ground floor, the main entrance being in the central part of the building. Four double stairways and two single stairways lead from the ground to the main floor.

Rooms and Equipment. Forty-five class rooms, each having a capacity of 45 pupils, will care for the new student body. Of this number, 20 are for recitation and 15 for study, all furnished with movable chair desks. There are eight science laboratories, one each for botany, physiology, chemistry and physics and two each for general science and physics. Adjacent to the laboratories, or in them, are demonstration rooms with raised seats and preparation rooms.

Three rooms have been fitted for art drawing classes with store rooms adjacent to three for mechanical drawing classes, with adjacent store rooms. A domestic science group consists of cooking room, with demonstration seats, a pantry, two sewing rooms, with fitting room, and equipment for laundry work—tubs, electric washing machines and electric mangle. Each of the 30 double tables is supplied with an electric sewing machine. The housekeeping suite consists of kitchen, dining room, living room and bathroom.

In the manual training department, six rooms of ample size have been fitted to accommodate 30 pupils in each. The equipment includes a joining shop, a pattern-making shop, a moulding room, a forge shop, a machine shop and an automobile mechanic shop. Connected with these shops are supply rooms, tool rooms, an amphitheater for demonstration and wash rooms. The commercial department consists of four bookkeeping and four typewriter rooms.

Auditorium to Seat 2250. The school auditorium, 95 by 100 feet, with its gallery, has a seating capacity of 2250. The stage, 40x80 feet back of the curtain and 15x80 in front, affords additional space for gymnasium or for musical or dramatic entertainment.

No feature of design in the new structure is of more interest than the lunchroom, which has been equipped to serve 1500 persons at one time. On the third floor is the music room, with a seating capacity of 300. The school library is on the second floor. Lockers are in the corridors.

Five offices comprise the administration suite, those of the principal, dean, physician, assistant principal and general office. Teachers' rooms are provided on each floor. On the fourth floor there are rooms for the school band and orchestra to practice.

The contents of the new structure have been computed at 5,000,000 cubic feet. The site is 10.5 acres in extent. Back of the school building is a field, 244 by 699 feet, and on either side an open space of 327 by 28 feet.

Just a little more than three years ago—Jan. 17, 1922, to be exact—the recommendation for the new building was made by a committee of the Board of Education. The preliminary drawings and contracts were authorized June 13, 1922, and construction formally authorized on Dec. 12 of that year. The building is named after William Beaumont, a pioneer St. Louis physician and scientist.

SOVIET TO SELL
CROWN JEWELS,
BUY MACHINERY

Negotiations on for Transfer of Diamonds, Rubies and Other Stones Valued at $264,000,000.

SALE TO BE IN
LOTS OF $5,000,000

What Cannot Be Exchanged for Cash Will Be Bartered for Engines and Farm Implements.

By the Associated Press. MOSCOW, Feb. 1.—It is the purpose of the Soviet Government to sell the crown jewels of Imperial Russia and buy American tractors, machinery and planes.

The usual estimate of the value of the jewels of Peter the Great, Elizabeth, Catherine the Great and other monarchs down to the late Nicholas II, is $264,000,000. "These magnificent jewels," said a high official, "were bought by Russia's former tyrants with the sweat, toil and trial of our peasants. It is now our desire to give them back to the peasants in the form of implements for tilling the soil or machinery for industries. We want to turn the glitter of our crown jewels into the glitter of American steel."

The art treasures in the Soviet museums, some of them by Rubens, Rembrandt, Van Dyke and Raphael, have an estimate value of $1,000,000,000. The Soviet, however, is determined not to sell the artistic treasures.

Rudolph Oboloff of New York is among them or more foreign diamond experts who are bidding for parts of the jewel collection, which the Government has decided to sell in separate lots. No tender for less than $5,000,000 worth of the gems will be accepted.

Oboloff, who was the diamond expert for the late "Diamond Jim" Brady of New York, characterizes the collection as beautiful beyond description. It is his idea that the Soviet Government realizes that all the diamond firms of Amsterdam, London, Paris and New York combined would be unable to purchase the collection and, therefore, it is willing to dispose of it in lots to the highest bidder.

Ready to Make Trade. It is realized that private buyers can take a negligible portion of the treasures because of their enormous value. The Government, therefore, is prepared to exchange the remainder for American agricultural machinery, locomotives and other products Russia urgently needs.

Russia makes no secret of the fact that she lacks money for equipment to reconstruct her shattered industries. Having failed to obtain loans abroad in the last eight years she is obliged to utilize her own resources for the rehabilitation of the economy and the Government intended to spend the receipts from grain exports for American machinery but the plan for collecting grain from the peasants was not fully realized, and orders for foreign machinery have been curtailed.

$500 Carats of Diamonds. The Associated Press has obtained the first complete and accurate description of the regal emblems from official sources. The jewels date from Peter the Great to Nicholas II. They comprise 406 separate pieces, the total weight of the diamonds alone is 25,335 carats; pearls 6200; sapphires 4200; emeralds 2200 and uncut rubies 1100, and also a great variety of miscellaneous stones.

No other historical collection of gems, according to the Russian officials, approaches the crown jewels either in value or historical interest. The present collection does not represent all the Russian crown jewels, only those covering the last 200 years. The jewels worn by Russian potentates prior to the nineteenth century are still in the Kremlin at Moscow or the Hermitage gallery at Leningrad.

Of the 406 items in the collection 21 per cent were supplied by Peter the Great, 40 per cent by Elizabeth, Catherine the Great and Alexander I, 10 per cent by Alexander II, and 5 per cent by Nicholas II. Contrary to general belief the last czar and his family were relatively modest in their expenditures for jewels.

Crown of 4956 Diamonds. Conspicuous among the collection are three crowns. The largest of these, the Imperial crown of the Russian emperors, was made for the coronation of Catherine the Great in 1762, and contains 4956

KELLOGG FOR PAVING WAY FOR POOR MAN DIPLOMAT

Secretary Believes Time Has Come for Government to Provide Homes by Owning Them.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—Secretary Kellogg is convinced the time has come for this country to establish a policy of owning its own embassy, legation and consulate buildings in foreign countries. The Secretary, in a letter to Chairman Porter of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, made clear he had given the question much consideration and that the program which has been proposed in a bill introduced by Porter was in harmony with the financial program of President Coolidge.

"It is still true, as has often been stated," the Secretary writes, "that no man who is not comparatively wealthy can be an Ambassador or Minister of the United States in the world and one of the wealthiest of nations, is under the necessity of limiting its choice of diplomatic representatives to men of wealth. No matter how able a man may be, how learned in international law and diplomatic history, how skilled in negotiation, or how representative of the best American culture, he is not eligible for appointment to most of the great diplomatic posts unless he has a large private fortune."

MEXICAN RANCH OF FORMER
U. S. CONSULAR AGENT SEIZED

William O. Jenkins Asks Protection of Federal Troops After Invasion by Agrarians.

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 1.—Dispatches from Puebla say that William O. Jenkins, former American Consular agent, has requested the protection of the local Government against armed agrarians invading one of his ranches in the state of Puebla.

The dispatches add that Federal troops have been sent to the ranch and that negotiations have commenced in an attempt to induce the Agrarians to evacuate the estate.

Consul Jenkins was kidnapped by bandits in 1919 and held for $150,000 ransom. The Mexican Government finally obtained his release after strong representations on the part of the United States Government. Later, Jenkins was arrested charged with collusion in the kidnapping. The case was carried through all the courts in Mexico and Jenkins finally was released.

Other principal articles are nine emblematic globes, sceptres and chains, containing diamonds, pearls and rubies, weighing as much as 50 carats each; 23 magnificent diamonds, many stars, 16 necklaces of diamonds and pearls, 15 brooches, 10 tiaras, nine diamond-studded lockets, 29 pairs of earrings, including one set of gigantic emeralds of 174 carats each, 42 rings, 74 pins and 19 gold snuff boxes, heavily jeweled.

RISTINE'S JUDICIAL CANDIDACY ADDS
INTEREST TO RACE

War Veteran, Seeking Otto's Seat on Supreme Bench, Said to Have Support of Judge Graves.

PENDERGAST FACTION
MAY BACK HIM

In St. Louis Also, His Prospects of Obtaining Organization Support of Democrats Are Good.

By CURTIS A. BETTS. Announcement of the candidacy of Col. Carl L. Ristine of Lexington for the Democratic nomination for Judge of the Missouri Supreme Court has aroused interest to a degree seldom found in judicial campaigns. This is because Ristine is understood to be the choice of Judge W. W. Graves, long a powerful factor in the court, to succeed Judge Robert W. Otto.

The Ristine candidacy clearly will upset the political calculations, which had tended to concede the greater strength among the candidates to George R. Ellison of Maryville. The backing of Judge Graves, whose political power, while possibly not as great as a few years ago, is a factor to be reckoned with by any candidate.

Even without the Graves support, Ristine would be a formidable candidate. On the fields of battle in the war he won his way to a colonelcy, and since the war he has maintained his contact with members of the American Legion, with whom he is popular, and some of whom have a political influence beyond that organization.

Pendergast Support. Invariably the first thought of a Democrat seeking office, judicial or strictly political, is directed toward commanding the support of the Pendergast organization in Kansas City, the most powerful political organization in the State. Ristine will have little difficulty in getting the Pendergast support.

Because of his war connections with men who are a part of that organization, Ristine probably could have commanded its aid through his own efforts. With the Graves support he virtually is certain to get it.

In St. Louis, also, the prospects for Ristine to obtain organization help is good. Graves always has been strong with the Democratic organization here and what he directs is fairly certain to be carried out.

Ristine, given the support of the Democratic organizations in St. Louis and Kansas City, with some of the following in the rural sections, would appear to be a most formidable candidate, particularly from the fact that there are four other candidates to divide the bulk of the rural vote. Undoubtedly Ellison will sweep Northwest Missouri, while Judge E. S. Gantt of Mexico will far outdistance the others in the tier of strong Democratic counties east of the center of the State. Robert L. Ward of Caruthersville, whose announcement is expected within a few days, will be equally strong in the southeastern section. Mark A. McGruder of Sedalia will pick up a scattering vote through the central part of the State.

Native of Jasper County. All this, of course, is in the primary. Ristine's strength, in so far as the Graves influence is concerned, may be an entirely different matter in the election. In 1918, the last time Graves was a candidate, he almost met defeat himself, winning by a plurality of less than 1000.

Col. Ristine is 39 years old and was born in Jasper County. He is a graduate of Missouri University and has been practicing law 16 years, except for the two years he was in the army. He received his officer's training at the first camp in Fort Riley, and became Captain of the Lexington National Guard company, with which he entered the national army. He soon became a Major and at Camp Doniphan was advanced to Lieutenant-Colonel. He fought through the Argonne as Lieutenant-Colonel of the 139th Infantry and afterward was promoted to Colonel.

I learned, too, that he was favorable to Underwood or Champ Clark and was against Gov. Wilson.

I took lunch with Col. Harvey yesterday. It is the first time I have met him. I wanted to determine what his real attitude was toward Gov. Wilson, but I think I am left as much in the dark as ever.

He told me that everybody south of Canal street was in a frenzy against Gov. Wilson and said they were bringing all sorts of pressure upon him to oppose him. He said he told them he had an open mind, and that if they could convince him he was a dangerous man he would do so.

He said that Morgan was particularly virulent in his opposition to Gov. Wilson. I asked him what this was based upon, and he said upon some remark Gov. Wilson had made in Morgan's presence concerning the methods of bankers and which Morgan took as a personal reference.

He told me that he believed that any amount of money that was needed to defeat Gov. Wilson could be readily obtained. He said he would be surprised if they did not put $250,000 in New Jersey alone in order to defeat delegates favorable to his nomination.

We are going to try to devise some plan by which we can use this Wall street opposition to Gov. Wilson to his advantage. If the country knows of their determination to defeat him by the free use of money, I am sure it will do the rest.

If you can make any suggestions regarding the best way to meet the Wall street attack, I would greatly appreciate it.

"THE INTIMATE PAPERS OF COL. HOUSE"

How Bryan's Friendly Neutrality Was Won Before Baltimore Convention

Col. House Tells of His Conferences With Democratic Leaders and Gives an Explanation of the "Cocked Hat" Episode and the Break With Col. Harvey.

In the first chapter of the "Intimate Papers" printed in the Sunday Post-Dispatch yesterday, Col. House told of an ambition which had grown through the years to select a candidate for President of the United States, to secure his nomination and election; how he bided his time until 1910, when he thought the situation opportune; of his search for a suitable candidate, and his final decision that Woodrow Wilson, then Governor of New Jersey, was the best in public life available for standard bearer of the Democratic Party in the 1912 presidential election.

CHAPTER TWO.

Copyright, 1926, by Edward M. House, All Rights Reserved. Printed by arrangement with Houghton Mifflin Company and New York Tribune.

"In reading the speeches Wilson was making in 1911," recorded Col. House, "I noticed he was not stressing the tariff. I called his attention to this and thought it was a mistake. Underwood and Champ Clark were making this a feature. I was sure Wilson could do it better than they, and since it was becoming a prominent issue of the campaign, I advised striking a strong note on the subject in order at once to call attention to himself as a fit champion of the Democratic cause. I suggested that he let me invite D. F. Houston, who had made a lifelong study of the question, to come to New York for consultation."

"The Governor agreed to the advisability of this move, and Houston came. I gave a dinner at the Gotham (Dec. 7). The others present besides Governor Wilson were Houston, Walter Page, McCombs and Edward S. Martin. I seated Houston by Wilson and arranged for dinner I went over the data which Houston had prepared, and added to them and eliminated until then whatever seemed necessary. The data were afterwards given to Governor Wilson, who based his tariff speeches largely on them."

Both House and Governor Wilson understood that the approval of Bryan would be a factor essential to the success of Wilson's candidacy, and from the American point of view the time of the nominating convention House worked ceaselessly to secure it.

"Before I left for Texas, in December, 1911," wrote House, "it was understood that I should nurse Bryan and bring him around to our way of thinking, if possible. Before Mr. Bryan left New York for Jamaica he asked me to keep him informed concerning political conditions and to send him such clippings as I thought would be of interest. He said he was taking but few papers: 'The World,' 'The Washington Post.' I think he mentioned, because I wondered why he took either of them, since they were both so antagonistic to him."

House called Bryan's attention to all the Wilson characteristics likely to attract his approval.

House to Bryan. New York, Dec. 6, 1911. My Dear Mr. House: I was called over the telephone last week by a friend of Mr. Hearst, who made an appointment to see me. He said that Mr. Hearst had been out to his country place on Sunday and they had talked about enlisting me in his behalf for the presidential nomination.

I told him that I was thoroughly committed to Gov. Wilson from that, even if I were not, I would advise Mr. Hearst to submerge himself for a while and work with the party for a season. After further conversation it developed that he was grooming himself for a dark horse.

I do not know what effect my talk had, but as yet he has made no formal announcement.

I learned, too, that he was favorable to Underwood or Champ Clark and was against Gov. Wilson.

I took lunch with Col. Harvey yesterday. It is the first time I have met him. I wanted to determine what his real attitude was toward Gov. Wilson, but I think I am left as much in the dark as ever.

He told me that everybody south of Canal street was in a frenzy against Gov. Wilson and said they were bringing all sorts of pressure upon him to oppose him. He said he told them he had an open mind, and that if they could convince him he was a dangerous man he would do so.

He said that Morgan was particularly virulent in his opposition to Gov. Wilson. I asked him what this was based upon, and he said upon some remark Gov. Wilson had made in Morgan's presence concerning the methods of bankers and which Morgan took as a personal reference.

He told me that he believed that any amount of money that was needed to defeat Gov. Wilson could be readily obtained. He said he would be surprised if they did not put $250,000 in New Jersey alone in order to defeat delegates favorable to his nomination.

We are going to try to devise some plan by which we can use this Wall street opposition to Gov. Wilson to his advantage. If the country knows of their determination to defeat him by the free use of money, I am sure it will do the rest.

COL. GEO. B. HARVEY
"I never remotely considered wounding Col. Harvey's feelings nor the breaking of the friendship between Gov. Wilson and himself."

MRS. WM. J. BRYAN

If you can make any suggestions regarding the best way to meet the Wall street attack, I would greatly appreciate it.

From now, letters will reach me at Austin, Tex.

With kind regards and best wishes for all of you, I am, faithfully yours, E. M. HOUSE.

My Dear Mr. House: I am anxious to get back and find out more of the political situation. I shall attend the Washington banquet on the 8th of January and will have a chance to learn how things are shaping up.

I am glad Gov. Wilson recognizes that he has the opposition of Morgan and the rest of Wall street. If he is nominated it must be by the progressive Democrats, and the more progressive he is the better.

The Washington banquet will give him a good chance to speak out against the trusts and Aldrich currency scheme. Yours very truly, W. J. BRYAN.

The Washington banquet, to which he referred, gave a good chance to Bryan himself to exhibit his personal generosity, for, just before it, Wilson's opponents published a letter which while president of Princeton he had written to Mr. Adrian Jolliffe some five years previous. In the letter appeared this unfortunate sentence: "Would that we could do something at once dignified and effective to knock Mr. Bryan once for all into a cocked hat." It would have been only human nature if the Commissioner had then and there sworn Mr. Wilson and all his works. Instead, he did not permit himself to show any pique and at the dinner manifested the utmost cordiality to the Governor, who himself in a speech of rare discretion emphasized the admiration that all good Democrats felt toward Mr. Bryan.

It is possible that his friendliness toward Wilson was enhanced by the controversy between the Governor and Col. George Harvey, which resulted in a spirited exchange of letters between Mr. McCombs and Col. Watterston. For Bryan distrusted Harvey as a representative of New York interests.

BURBANK MAKES ANTI-THEOLOGICAL TALK FROM PULPIT

Says Idea of Good Deity Sending People to Burning Hell Is Damnable—Calls Christ an Infidel.

WANTS BIBLE READ
LIKE OTHER BOOKS

Declares Devil Never Worried Him and Says He Aims to Awaken Petrified Hypocrites.

By the Associated Press. SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 1.—Luther Burbank, the noted horticulturist of Santa Rosa, Cal., spoke from the pulpit of the First Congregational Church here yesterday and declared "the idea that a good God would send people to a burning hell is utterly damnable to me."

Burbank was invited to speak from the pulpit several weeks before he announced that he was "infidel."

"I love everybody. I love everything," said Burbank. "I love humanity. It has been a constant delight during all by 77 years of life, and I love all the works of nature."

"All plants, animals and man are already in eternity traveling across the face of time, whence we know not, whither who is able to tell? Let us have one world at a time. 'Spectacles of Theology.'"

"Let us read the Bible without the ill-fitting colored spectacles of theology, just as we read other books, using our own judgment and reason."

"Most of us possess discriminating reasoning powers—can we use them or must we be fed by others like babes?"

"What does the Bible mean when it distinctly says by their works ye shall know them?" Works count far more than words with those who think clearly."

"Euripides long ago said, 'Who dares not speak his free thought is a slave.' I nominated myself as an 'infidel' as a challenge to thought for those who are asleep. The word is harmless if properly used. Its stigma has been heaped upon it by unthinking people, who associate it with the bogey devil and his malicious works. The devil has never concerned me, as I have always used my own conscience, not the dictum of any cult. If my words have awakened thoughts in narrow bigoted and petrified hypocrites, it will have done its appointed work."

Blind Leaders of Blind. "I love to look into the fearless, honest, trusting eyes of a child who so long has been by the theologians, conceived and born in an infidel, damned at birth. Do you believe all our teachers without question? I cannot. We must 'prove' all things and hold fast to that which is good."

The universal voice of science tells us that if we men and this wonderful body, mind or the all-pervading spirit of good that the consequences fall upon ourselves here and now.

"Why not accept these plain facts and guide our lives accordingly? We must not be deceived by blind leaders of the blind and my expecting to be 'saved' by anyone except by the kingdom within ourselves."

"The truly honest and brave ones know that if saved it must be by their own efforts. The truth hurts for a while and an old useless tooth is removed, but health and happiness may be restored by the painful removal of the disturbing member."

Calls Christ "Infidel." "I reiterate. The religion of most people is wrong. They would like to believe, not what they do believe, and a very few stop to examine its foundation. The idea that a good God would send people to a burning Hell is utterly damnable to me. I don't want to have anything to do with such a God. I am a lover of man and Christ as a man and His work, and all things that help humanity, but nevertheless, just as He was an infidel, then I am an infidel today. I prefer and claim the right to worship the in-god, the everlasting, almighty 'God' of this vast universe, and I reveal to us gradually, step by step, my demonstrable truths of our Saviour, science."

"Do you think Christ or Mohammed, Confucius, Bael, or even the gods of ancient mythology, are dead? Not so. Do you think Pericles, Marcus Aurelius, Moses, Shakespeare, Socrates, Aristotle, Plato, Empedocles, Humboldt, Darwin, Tolstoy, Franklin, Emerson are dead? No. These very personality lives and will live forever in our lives, and all who are to follow us. All of them are with us today. No one lives who is not influenced more or less by great ones according to the capacity of the cup of knowledge, which they bring to these ever-flowing fountains to be filled."

Another installment of the "Intimate Papers" will be printed in the Post-Dispatch tomorrow. It will tell of the nomination of Woodrow Wilson by the Baltimore convention, and of the feuds of rival campaign managers which immediately followed.

BROWNS OBTAIN PITCHERS ZACHARY AND BALLOU FROM SENATORS

Veterans Bush and Tobin Are Sent to Washington In Exchange for Hurlers

Southpaw Won 12 and Lost 15 Games With A. L. Flag Winners in 1925—Right-Hander Came From Chattanooga and Had 8-11 Record for Year.

By Dent McSkimming

Johnny Tobin, outfielder, and Joe Bush, pitcher, have been traded to the Washington Senators for Tom Zachary, veteran southpaw pitcher, and Win Ballou, young right-hand pitcher. Business Manager Bill Friel of the Browns announced today that the deal had been completed after almost a week of negotiating.

Zachary, who is regarded as the heavy portion of the material coming from Washington, is one of the veteran pitchers of the American League although he is but 29 years old. He joined Washington six years ago, in the spring of 1919, last season he won 12 games and lost 15 for the team which won the American League pennant. He permitted the combined enemy forces to earn an average of 3.84. Ballou, obtained by Washington near the close of last season from Chattanooga of the Southern Association, was used for a few innings in the world series.

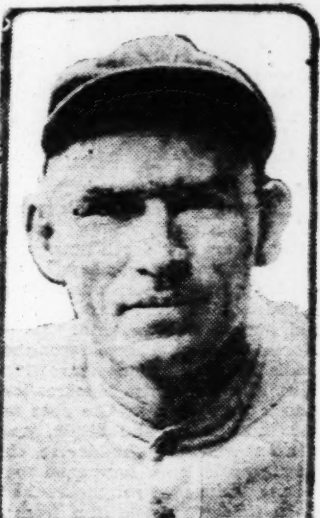

With Chattanooga last season, Ballou appeared in 21 games, credited with eight victories and was charged with 11 defeats. He permitted an average of 4.42 runs a game by the opposition. He is a big man physically, measuring about 6 feet tall and weighing close to 150 pounds. His form is a fast ball, which was obtained by Washington primarily for the purpose of relief work.

Johnny Tobin has been playing ball for St. Louis since 1914 when he joined the St. Louis Federal League Club. He was retained by Phil Ball when the Feds and Browns consolidated but he subsequently spent one year on the Pacific Coast as a member of the Salt Lake Club. He returned to the Browns in 1918 and has been one of the outstanding stars of the club since then. Last season he started off with a bad arm and when Harry Rice obtained a hold on the right field job he refused to let go. Tobin is 31 years old.

Tobin is sorry to leave two such wonderful fellows as George Stiller and Phil Ball, but if the trade will do the Browns some good I think, of course, then it should be made," said Tobin today. "I am sure that I will have at least two or three years of good baseball left and I will give my best in Washington. If the Senators can't win the pennant this year I hope the Browns finish on top. My arm, which bothered me early last season, was in fine shape at the finish of the year. The trouble was caused by bad teeth and the cause has been removed."

Phil Ball, owner of the Browns, said this morning that he thought the trade would improve the Browns materially. "Sister thinks well of Zachary and Ballou," Ball said. "I regret Ballou, in Big Series, Fanned Traynor on Three Pitched Balls.

HAROLD RUEB, St. Louis boy who is Washington's star catcher, believes St. Louis fans will have no cause to regret the coming of Zachary and Ballou to the Browns, although they may be sorry to part with Tobin and Bush.

"Ballou got into the world series and struck out Pie Traynor on three pitched balls," said Rueb in discussing the young right-hander. "Traynor didn't get his butt off his shoulder. I was eager to see what we could make of Ballou in the spring. He looked good last fall. He has a zipping fast ball and he can control it."

"Tom Zachary," Rueb added, "is always in shape, a willing worker and I am sure he has a lot of victories in his left arm."

Joe Bush, veteran right-hand pitcher, will be playing with his fifth team in the American League. He started as a member of the Philadelphia Athletics in 1915. In 1915 he was sent to Boston, from whence the accommodating Harry Frazee sent him to the New York Yankees and last winter in a trade for Urban Shocker.

Last season Bush appeared in 33 games, was credited with 14 victories and lost 14 games. His career run average was only 4.56. He is 34 years of age.

Wrestling Champion Meets Poddubny in Finish Match in New York.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—Joe Stecher, claimant of the world's heavyweight wrestling title, tonight meets Ivan Poddubny, Russian, veteran of 25 years, at the mat game. Poddubny never has been defeated.

The match will be at catch-as-catch-can style, two out of three falls, and is the first wrestling championship affair to visit New York in four years.

Stecher, master of the crushing scissors hold, has trained faithfully and is reported confident of victory, while Poddubny realizes that victory in this bout will place him among the leaders in the game.

White Displays Skill and Poise In Workout Here

Adams' foe at Armory, Tomorrow, Spars With McCorgary and Burman.

Joe White, southern heavyweight boxer, and Sergeant Jack Adams, former champion of the U. S. Army, will conclude training, this afternoon, at downtown gymnasiums in preparation for their scheduled 10-round encounter on tomorrow night's boxing card at the Armory. Both men appeared to be in excellent physical trim when they would heavy training yesterday afternoon.

White held his first local workout Sunday afternoon at the Business Men's gym, stepping through six strenuous rounds in sparring bouts with Jimmy "Babe" McCorgary and Frank Burman, hefty middleweight boxers. The southern heavyweight is built along the rangy lines of Adams. He showed excellent footwork, boxing skill and ring poise in his training bouts.

Has Fought Renalt Twice. His experience accumulated through a career embracing more than 40 professional bouts, including three engagements with Martin Burke, two with Jack Renalt, three with Wild Bill Reed, two with Homer Smith and single bouts with other noted heavyweights, White is a truly formidable "trial horse" for Adams, who hopes to regain the popular esteem he enjoyed before his technical knock defeat at the hands of Jack Renalt several weeks ago.

Besides the heavyweight feature, tomorrow night's festive menu will include an 8-round, middleweight contest between Frank Burman and "Kid" Shantlers; a 6-round dual between Bobby Hill and Matt Schultz; lightweight scrappers, and a 4-round curtain raiser in which Adams' opponent, Kid Brown, a Negro featherweight, is scheduled to mingle.

Malay-Prince Bout Planned. Efforts are being made by Matchmaker Gene Straus to sign Arthur "Sailor" Malay, Pacific Coast heavyweight, for a six-round battle with Tom Pivac, South Broadway amateur graduate, on the New Coliseum fight card for Tuesday night, Feb. 9. Straus stated today that Pivac has accepted terms and that the bout will be a main event.

Bird's Impressive Showing Last Tuesday night when he won a popular decision over Matt Dugan in six rounds, earned him Straus' offer of a match with Malay. The match with Malay was Pivac's second professional bout.

Butch and McCorgary Hard at Work. George Butch and Babe McCorgary are already training assiduously for their coming bouts, with Champion Pivac, and Edna Kaplan, respectively, and the strenuous program adopted by both local boys seems to make certain that his information was correct as they step into the ring at the Coliseum Feb. 9.

Red Bull is doing several miles of road work each morning and taking on such surprising partners as Eddie Goldberger and Morris King at the Red Bull gymnasium in the afternoon. McCorgary is prepping at the Business Men's gym, while Sgt. Jack Adams and Tom Pivac local heavyweights.

Kessler Objects to Being Titled "Pro." Benny Kessler of St. Louis, now attending the University, takes exception to being called a professional boxer. In a letter to the Post-Dispatch, Kessler says: "I have been informed that a St. Louis newspaper stated that I had recently joined the professional boxing ranks. This statement is untrue. I cannot understand how such information was obtained. I do not care to have my amateur standing blemished in this way."

COBB DISCUSSES SIGN-STEALING Chapter XXII in Ty's Life Story As Told by Himself

Chapter XXII in Ty's Life Story As Told by Himself

(Copyright 1926.) THE cycle of sign stealing in baseball—mind you, players never use the word "signals," but always "sign"—was at its height in the days of the great Athletics club of Philadelphia up to 1912 or 1913. I mention the Athletics because they had developed the art of stealing "signs" of their opponents to a high degree. No other club has ever approached them for their keenness in detecting the catcher's instructions to a pitcher.

In the minds of the public there seems to be an impression that sign stealing is illegal—at any rate, unsportsmanlike. It is not so regarded by ballplayers. If a player is smart enough to solve the opposing system of signals, he gets due credit. It is a part of the game. I refer, of course, to detecting signals while on the field in actual contact.

There is another form of sign stealing which is reprehensible and should be so regarded. That is the use of mechanical devices worked from outside sources, such as the use of field glasses, mirrors and so on, by persons stationed in the bleachers or outside the center-field fence.

Both of these methods have been used in the big league. People who tell you otherwise are simply not aware of what went on during those days. It should be remembered, however, that signal tipping on the fields is not against the rules, while the use of outside devices is against all the laws of baseball and the playing rules. It is obviously unfair.

The most flagrant case of outside signal tipping that was discovered during my early days in the league was at the old American League park in New York, on Washington Heights. That affair created quite a disturbance—almost scandal—among ballplayers at the time. The public, it seems, never knew much about it.

In center field there was an extra fence inside the regular boundaries of the park. This was covered with large advertising signs. On one of them was painted a large Derby hat. That hat sign was used to detect the catcher's signals.

It was a Derby hat, and a popular design when Matt Dugan in six rounds, earned him Straus' offer of a match with Malay. The match with Malay was Pivac's second professional bout.

Millers Win
And Cut Down
Vespers' Lead

Two Penalty Kicks Give Foley's Team, 3-2 Victory
Raticans Go Over.

By Herman Wecke.
Two goals, on which penalty kicks were awarded, and on both which Tom Erbe made good, cut the difference between the victory and defeat for the Vespers.
The St. Louis Soccer
League, in the clash with the Ben Raticans yesterday. As a result of two penalties, the Millers won, goals to 2. The Raticans stopped the Wellstons, 4 goals to 3, in the evening.

As a result of the defeat of the Vespers, assessed by some 2300 spectators, the Millers, instead of leading by a game and a half, are now but one point removed from the pacemakers.

Both the breaks which lost the match for the Vespers came in the closing period, and each occurred at a time when the score was deadlocked. After eight and half minutes in the second half with the count standing 1 goal to 1, Captain Fink fisted an offering into the net. This would have been all right had Goaler La Barre stopped the kick. Captain Ollie, never being a halfback and not willing to do this, violated the rules. Erbe came up from his fullback place to blast one past La Barre.

However, the Vespers soon tied the score. Then three minutes after doing this, Tal Mulroy, outside of the Millers, broke loose and scored. Erbe was brought up from fullback and once more he made good.

Had it been in that fashion that the Ben Millers stopped the rush of the professional soccer league pacemakers.

Outside of the two free kicks the game was interesting throughout.
The eleven battled for victory.
There was sensational, good and bad soccer, mixed in. Also a near-collision of fullbacks. This led to the closing period when Jimmy Dunn, forward of the Millers, started after fullback Reid
after being tripped by the Vesper man. All players gathered round. For a time it looked like a free fight.

Joe Hand made several nice runs rough the Miller defense. Mulroy outplayed his rivals, as did Dunn. But Erbe, none the less, had an off day, missing no more than three open shots when he was to the upright. The Vesper attacks on the whole outplayed one of the Millers. But all this did not offset those two penalty kicks.

New Goals Is Tried.
Willie Foley introduced his new goal. O'Connell, late of Sherman Park. He did well. Both of goals scored against him came as he was out of position. He made several fine "saves." Joe Mc-Carthy was back at outside left for the Vespers. While not up to his level of three years ago, Joe nevertheless, made possible the final result for his team.

WRAY'S
COLUMN

Very Much Better.

IN the so-called "good old days" of racing, when the chalk-wielders exposed their odds on slates—and then rubbed and rubbed and rubbed when approached with a $10 bet—they didn't do things so well as today.
For example:

In case of a dead heat, if one horse called for 10 to 5 and the other ticket 4 to 5, the bookies merely added the ticket totals, $15 and $9, and divided by two —each ticket holder getting $12
which included his $5 wager.

That put a premium on the favorite for doing less than was expected and curtailed the longer shot's returns for doing better than he figured.

The Proper Way.

AT New Orleans Saturday, under the pari-mutuel certificate plan, they did much better.
They added all the winning money wagered on all the starters, divided that in two and then divided each half by the respective money bet on the two dead-heat runners. This gave the correct division proportionate to the number of $2 tickets bought on each.

Thus George, a 7 to 10 favorite, paid $7 for a $10 bet and Harlan, a longer shot, paid his proper proportion, $67 to $10.

Had they been paid off on the old basis, George tickets would have received the unfair total of $37 for each $10, and Harlan backers the same money!

Which seems one reason why the pari-mutuel has it on the old slate system.

Rough Sledding.

HUBERT HOUBEN, German
runner, was off to a bad start in his American debut at Boston.
Sprinters of collegiate fame lost
him in the short dash.

And the worst is yet to come.

Houben, this week, will meet the greatest indoor runner in history—Loren Murchison of St.
Louis. Houben will see the finest pair of heels he ever looked at, unless his Boston form was not his true speed.

Murchison, despite his long career on the boards, started his season by setting a new world's record for 70 yards at Chicago last week. He seems apt to gain revenge for his three defeats at the hands of Houben in Germany.

Murchison Predicts.

MURCHISON told the Post-Dispatch on his return from abroad that Houben was a wonderfully fast breaker but that The German probably would fare badly at the hands of American starters, owing to a tendency to "beat the gun." In Germany that does not penalize a runner. In America it sets him back a yard for each offense.

Murchison predicted that Houben would have a hard time winning in this country. And he hit the nail on the head from the take-off.

Houben may not fare any better during his invasion than has Clas Thunberg, the Finnish skater, who hasn't won a race in his country. Another S added to Thunberg's first name indicates what he seems to lack.

American Tennis Champion

By the Associated Press.
CANNES, France, Feb. 1.—Miss Helen Wills, American lawn tennis champion, again triumphed over Mlle. Contoslavos, one of France's strongest women players, today, winning the singles final in the Gallia tournament in straight sets, 6-3, 6-2.

Miss Wills thus won her second tournament in succession since her arrival on the Riviera, the first being the Metropolitan, in the final of which she downed Mlle. Vlasto, France's second-ranking player.

Today's match was made difficult for the American because of her opponent's insistence upon playing an overhead game, in which Miss Wills is not at her best. The French girl won the first two games of the opening set.
Miss Wills then carried five straight, dropped the eighth, and won the set with a love game.
The second set was much more one-sided.

The point score:

First Set.

Miss Wills— 406 545 404 32-6

Mlle. Contoslavos— 644 203 040 24-3

Second Set.

when, paired with Jack Hilliard,
she was defeated in the semifinals
of the mixed doubles of the Gallia tournament by Miss Emily Petchel of Southampton, England, and Al-lister McCormick of Chicago, 1-6, 6-4, 7-5. McCormick played marvelous tennis, while Hilliard made a poor showing. McCormick reached the semifinals of the singles, but was put out by Henri Cochet, France's Number Three player.

In the singles Miss Wills came through to the final yesterday by winning from Peggy Saunders, an English girl, 6-0, 6-0. It was one of the best exhibitions she had given

Once More Leading The Leaders 33,366,494 Lines of Total Advertising Printed in 1925

FOR the eleventh year in succession The Detroit News in 1925 again achieved ranking position among the metropolitan newspapers of America in total advertising volume.

In 1924 The Detroit News made a world's record with 30,604,518 lines of advertising. During the year just over The Detroit News with 33,366,494 lines of advertising surpassed this world record and assumed supremacy once more over such important newspapers as The Chicago Tribune, The New York Times, Washington Star, Los Angeles Times, St. Louis Dispatch, Pittsburgh Press, and Columbus Dispatch.

In the local field The Detroit News led the next advertising medium by 16,718,618 lines in total advertising, by 13,091,078 lines in local, 689,654 lines in national and 2,937,886 lines in classified advertising. In practically every class of advertising depending on direct sales to the

A number of factors are responsible for this achievement, all of which hinge on thorough circulation and reader confidence. Detroit people believe in The News and are therefore responsive to advertising in its columns. Detroit people find The News interesting and eagerly read it in greater numbers than they read any other Detroit newspaper. Hence the circulation of The Detroit News, now more than 340,000 Sunday and 310,000 week days — the greatest circulation in Michigan.

In fact no other city of Detroit's size or larger is so thoroughly covered by one newspaper as Detroit is by The News. Thus Detroit, a singularly rich and prosperous market, offers advertisers their greatest opportunity, for here is a city of a million and a half people easily covered by one newspaper at one rate.

Why WOMEN
Like This Coal

Women at home who have to keep the furnace going during the day like Maryville Coal, because it comes in small sizes, easy to shovel; no big lumps to break up.

Then, the small sizes burn more slowly and give steadier heat (when fired correctly) than big lumps. That means fewer trips to the furnace. Phone us for a correct firing chart, and ask your dealer for the Furnace size or Small Furnace size of—

DEAF EDUCATION ROW
HERE AMAZES VISITOR

Charles R. Crane, Diplomat, Converted to Lip-Reading
30 Years Ago.

It appeared "astounding" to Charles R. Crane, diplomat to Oriental countries during the Wilson administration who visited St. Louis last week, that, at this late day there should exist in the Board of Education here a dispute involving whether the manual or sign method, or the oral, or lip-reading, method was better for the instruction of deaf children.

Crane, who for more than 30 years has had an intensive interest in the deaf by reason of the fact that one of his own daughters has been totally deaf since babyhood, said that in almost every community in the country the decision has been made for the oral system. Deaf children perfected at an early age in lip-reading, he said, become almost normal, self-reliant participants in life, as has his daughter, while those confined to communication by signs are forever restricted to small groups, composed largely of other deaf persons, and remain dependants either upon the community or their relatives.

The dispute in the Board of Education has arisen over plans for a new school building to replace the Gallaudet school for the deaf. At present sign instruction and a combination of sign and lip-reading is being taught to fewer than 40 children in the Gallaudet school. Lip-reading exclusively is being given to about 30 children in an annex several blocks distant from the main school.

Plans for the new building, which is to cost $300,000, call for throwing the two groups together. Those in the board who favor the gradual abandonment of sign instruction and the substitution of the oral method, particularly with children reporting for their first instruction, point out that the contact of the sign-makers with the lip-readers will destroy the benefits of lip-reading. The sign method is easier for the child to acquire.

"It is almost beyond my belief that this problem should arise in 1926 in St. Louis," Crane said. "Other cities and states long ago have made the decision that their deaf through lip-reading, shall live their future as independent beings rather than outcasts from normal associations, which is the penalty of signs."

Headline in Nashville Banner. Yez! But it is the same old bug we've had for over 30 years. Bugs don't get you anything.

Charles M. Schwab recently divulged the secret of his phenomenal success. He hires a man in New York to write his after-dinner speeches and then doesn't bore his hearers with speaking them.

"Wales Tumbles Again When Horse Falls Dead"

Maybe the shock of finding the Prince still on after clearing the fence caused the horse to fall dead.

The Prince is a game sport. He'll risk a Kingdom for a horse any day.

LET'S GO!
Marty McManus and Baby Doll Jacobson have signed to play with the Browns practically clearing the road to Pennantville of all obstacles. Honk, hōnk!

Marty will go to Florida with the advance squad of battery men and expects to be in med-season form by the middle of March. Jake will not have to worry about going to Florida as he is already there.

If there is anything in the early bird stuff Jake ought to have enough worms by the first of April to last him all season.

"Cement Antitrust Suit Is Dismissed."
Probably had no concrete facts to go on.

The Prince of Wales has been taking so many headers off his horse that his collar bone finally cracked under the strain.

The Prince claims that he never fell off a horse in his life. He's merely unfortunate in picking mounts that can't rise to the occasion.

Better riders than the Prince fall off horses every day and nothing is ever heard about it. Every time His Highness does a Brodie he lands right smack on the front page. That's what you call the penalty of greatness.
